

I feel that the New Jersey Law should stay as it is despite the fact that it is stricter than the federal law. If I wanted the telemarketers to contact me I would not have signed up. If I want to do business with those whom I have done business before I will contact them or they can contact me by mail and then I'll decide if I want to communicate with them by phone and contact them from my end.